

Reavis High School
Curriculum Snapshot/Cover Page for Bilingual Health

Unit 1: The Skeletal and Muscular Systems

10
days

Students will describe the parts that make up the human body systems. Students will list the parts of the skeletal and muscular systems and describe their functions. Students will name some common disorders of the skeletal and muscular systems, their symptoms, and their treatments. Students will describe some ways to keep your skeletal and muscular systems healthy. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 2: The Nervous and Endocrine Systems

5
days

Students will describe the structure and function of the nervous system and the endocrine system. Students will describe the structure and function of the five sense organs. Students will describe disorders of the nervous system and the endocrine system and name several ways to keep them healthy. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 3: The Circulatory, Immune, and Respiratory Systems

10
days

Students will describe; the structure, function, disorders and explain how to keep your circulatory, lymphatic, immune, and respiratory systems healthy. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 4: The Digestive and Excretory Systems

5 days

Students will name the main organs of the digestive and excretory systems and explain what they do. Students will describe disorders and list some ways to keep your digestive system and excretory systems healthy. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 5: The Reproductive System

5 days

Students will describe the structure and function of the male and female reproductive systems. Students will explain the menstrual cycle. Students will describe how human babies develop inside the mother and describe the stages of human development. Students will list some disorders of the male and female reproductive systems. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 6: Safety and Injury Prevention

5 days

Students will name three ways you can be prepared for an emergency. Students will explain how to prevent injuries. Students will explain how you can stay safe at home, outside, and during activities such as swimming or biking. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 7: Personal Care and Hygiene

5 days

Students will describe ways to dress appropriately. Students will explain why sleep is important to your health. Students will name three ways to keep your teeth healthy. Students will describe ways to keep your skin, hair and nails healthy. Students will describe some common problems and treatments for teeth and skin. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 8: Nutrition and Fitness

5 days

Students will describe the benefits of a balanced diet. Students will identify nutrients in foods and use the Food Guide Pyramid to plan a balanced meal. Students will explain how nutrition and health are related. Students will describe how regular exercise affects your health. Students will define food Calories, and tell how they figure in weight control. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 9: Medicines, Drugs and Drug Abuse

15 days

Students will define what is a drug and a medicine and give some examples. Students will name some common reasons why people use alcohol and tobacco. Students will describe how alcohol and tobacco affect the body. Students will explain the difference between a stimulant and a depressant. Students will list some reasons why people abuse drugs. Students will describe the difference between drug use and abuse. Students will list the four main types of drugs and give an example of each type. Students will explain the effects of abusing certain drugs and how drugs can affect a community. Students will describe where you can get help for a drug problem. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 10: Sexuality

10
days

Students will define sexuality and name some sexual issues. Students will explain the responsibilities and consequences that come with being sexually active. Students will describe the problems and responsibilities that come with teenage pregnancy. Students will explain why abstinence is a smart choice. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.

Unit 11: Diseases and Disorders

7 days

Students will research a disease or disorder. Students will list and describe the body systems involved, causes or possible causes, symptoms, treatment, and prognosis of the disease or disorder. Students will use materials and references in the Polish language.